

ABA: 68844845

OB anterior

This image is a fluorescence micrograph of a brain section. A horizontal white line and a vertical white line intersect at the center. A localized, bright signal is visible on the left side of the vertical line, just below the horizontal line. The signal is primarily blue, with a small, very bright yellow-green spot at its core. The rest of the image is dark.