

ABA: 71920519

Tu

The image displays a coronal cross-section of a brain. The two cerebral hemispheres are visible, with a central sulcus separating them. The brain tissue is primarily colored in shades of blue. At the inferior (bottom) edge of each hemisphere, there are distinct areas of higher intensity, appearing as bright yellow and cyan. These areas are located symmetrically on both sides. A white horizontal line and a white vertical line intersect at the center of the brain, serving as a reference grid.