

ABA:76098382

DM

The image displays a blue brain scan, likely a PET or SPECT scan, showing a cross-section of a brain. A prominent, bright blue spot is visible in the center-left region, indicating a focal area of increased activity. A vertical white line runs through the center of the image, possibly representing a midline or a specific anatomical plane. The overall shape of the brain is roughly oval, with some internal structures visible as lighter blue areas.