

ABA: 76115740

VA/VL

This figure shows an axial brain scan with blue activation clusters. The clusters are primarily located in the medial frontal and medial parietal regions, with some smaller clusters in the lateral parietal areas. A white crosshair is centered on the image, and a vertical white line is positioned to the right of the center.